COVENANT HOUSE ANNUAL “DIY SLEEP OUT” EVENT

Spend one night out without shelter so homeless youth know our communities are there to help.

Who: The Reseda Neighborhood Council (RNC), along with Covenant House and other neighborhood councils are saying our neighbors and communities matter and we are here for them.

What: We are gathering together to step out of our comfort zones, experience a fraction of what is endured without having a home, and actively raise the vital funds and awareness needed to address this crisis.

Hosted at Reseda Park by the RNC for compassionate community members, youth advocates and local residents. This is a show of solidarity, at a much needed moment, that will offer a chance for everyone involved to discuss what is needed and show how serious we are taking this crisis.

Partnering with Covenant House we will promote stakeholder and fellow neighborhood council, registration, awareness, and voluntary donations directly to the verified Covenant House non-profit portal.

When: Thursday November 19 starting at 7:00PM until 7:00AM the next morning.

Where: Reseda Park Recreation Center picnic tables and Dreamfield.
